

1st WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP - SYDNEY 1979.

The first World Left Handed Golf Championship was held in Sydney Australia. The event was then called 'The International Tournament'. The courses used were The Lakes, Royal Sydney, Manly and Pymble. The tournament attracted entrants from USA, New Zealand and Australia and was held during the month of March 1979. The Presentation dinner was held at the Bowlers Club Sydney, where President Doug Crosby thanked everyone for attending and wished to see them at future International Tournaments.

The Tournament was organized by NALG Australia under the Chairmanship of Doug Crosby and Terry Lennox.

The winner was Mark Andrews, Australia

Golf course is Manly and the players are Ron Crooks Australia, Peter Read Australia, ? and ?