Chairman Richard Davison welcomed all representatives, thanked them for their attendance and wished them all and their respective associations good times for the future

Apologies—Tony Broadhurst, England. Gerry Bradley, Ireland. These were moved Secretary Nigel, Seconded Joe Brogdon, U.S.A. Carried. A late apology was received from Tom Waki and Mie Waki due to confusion over day of Meeting. Trusting this can be accepted by all delegates.

Minutes of 24th meeting held in Japan. These had been circulated, moved Secretary Nigel and seconded Michael May, U.K. that they be accepted and carried.

Matters arising-- Due to lack of response on some form of shortened tournament for the most elderly and a form of Stable ford tournament to be run in conjunction with medal rounds these issues have now expired

President Trevor Golding spoke of high uptake of Right handed golfers. A discussion was held prompted by Frank Hunter, USA. It was agreed that only partners of left hand golfers should be invited to play in WALG Events

Entry Form-- Same form for all tournaments, a simplified version, perhaps new technology (might have to be careful of new tech implementation due to age of entrants). Could country Delegates provide the entry form used for their previous Tournaments if available to Secretary. Tony Broadhurst from U.K. has already done this (big thank you Tony)

Communication—Greater communication with each nation and within each nation needs to be encouraged.

Next Tournaments—Josef Langenberger spoke on progress in Germany from 20th -24th May 2019 he is on top of most issues, has brochures for distribution on final night all positive, walg web site will start promoting within next few weeks.

France was officially recognized as hosting Tournament on August 16th -20th 2020 in the Paris region

Applications were presented from Taiwan and China to host a tournament in 2022, a vote favoured China

Election of officers--Positions of Chairman Richard Davison, Vice Chairman Tom Waki and Secretary Nigel Messenger were uncontested and were elected unanimously.
